FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

Our focus is on interventions that can bring tangible changes in the lives of the vulnerable mining communities in Rajasthan. Efforts were made to capture the plight of women, children and workers affected with occupational diseases in mining activities.

In last past year, DVS has added another feather in its hat by addressing the issues of mine workers through a sustainable and inclusive approach. Establishment of silicosis board at Dhoupur to expedite the diagnosis and rehabilitation process is one major achievement this second half of the year.

A model to address the water scarcity in the mining belt by building a check dam through a participatory approach of the community has also witnessed a great learning and success in the chapter of DVS. Adding capacities to workers in organizing themselves and in addressing their issues and to uphold their rights were further scaled up this second half of the year.

DVS under guidance and support of PHF has succeeded in consolidating its social footprint again by organizing a number of health camps, village and block level meetings to improve socioeconomic conditions of the marginalized mine workers and their families.

FIGHTING SILICOSIS

An experience workshop was conducted on April 18, 2019 at Jaipur by DVS regarding safe mining for state level stone cutting workers.

It saw participation of 32 workers as well as members of 10 organizations and unions from Karauli, Dhaulpur, Ajmer, Bheelbada and Vijoliya regions.

The workshop talked about a device made for safe mining by DVS and whether it could even be used during drilling.

It also talked about the measures taken by the government regarding the security of the workers.

The work done by DVS for the workers was presented. It was told that for workers working since 2008, the organization had arranged a medical test for silicosis and pleaded to state government for their rights.

As a result of this, more than 3700 workers from Karauli, Dhaulpur, Bharatpur and Dusa got tested for silicosis and got a medical certificate made, following which the state government provided an amount of 40 crores to them.

DVS has also been working for their safety for the past 2 years. This includes safety from dust in mines by pouring water, applying oil.

A minimum cost easily accessible device has also been prepared which is being tested on 10 mines in Karauli and Dhaulpur each.

A discussion followed the presentation in which everyone agreed that the tool should be used at a broader level and more study should be done in this regard.

After training by DVS workers, it was used in 3 mines in Vijauliya and following the success, it was used in 10 mines.

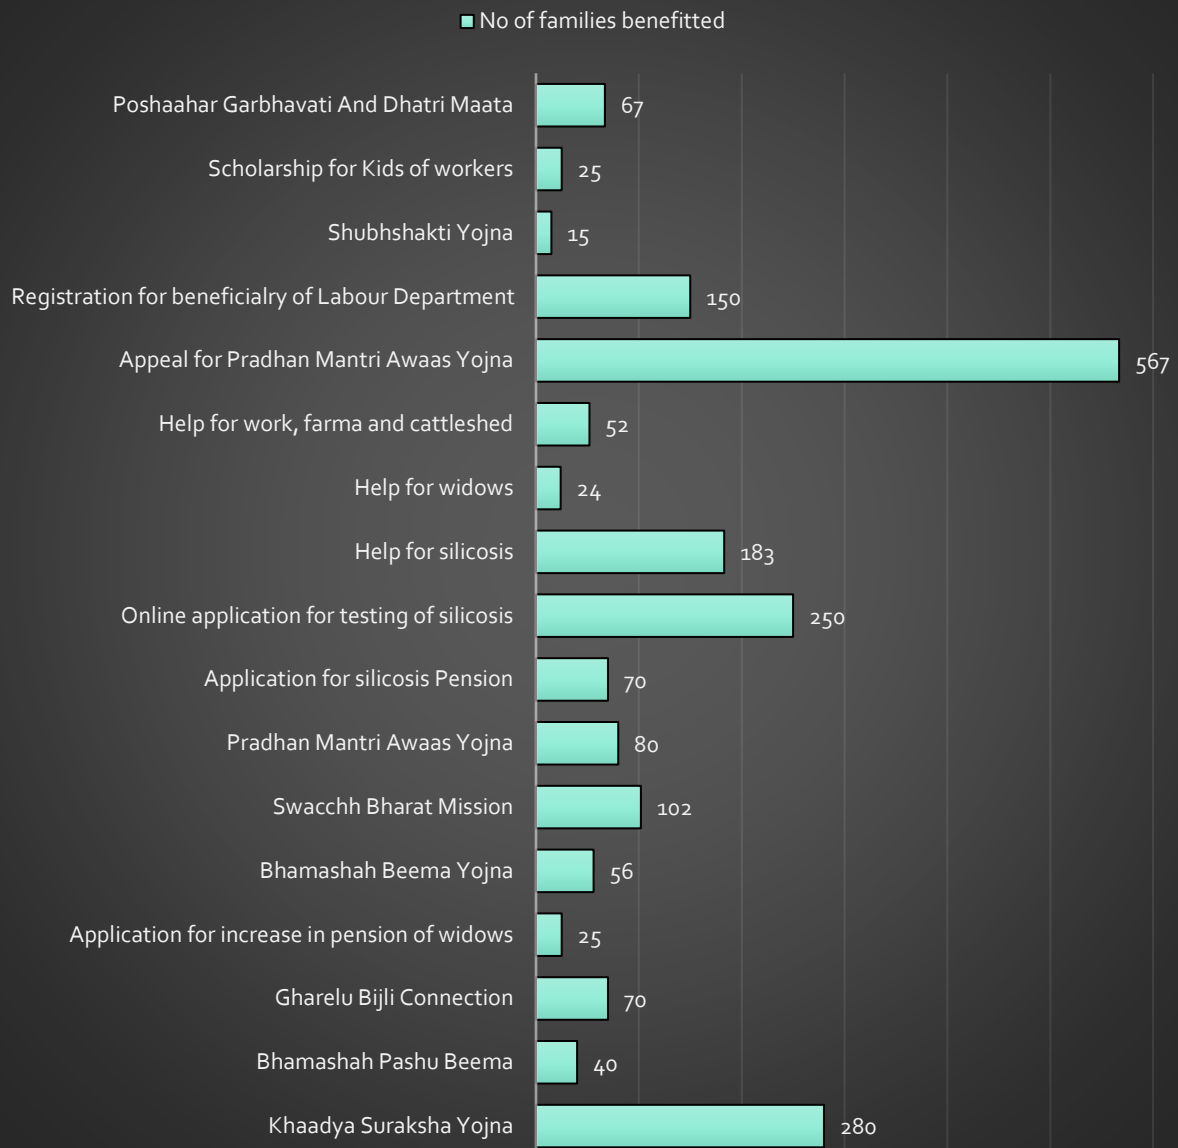

DVS was praised both by the head mining engineer of the district as well as the DC for developing the device since it was cheap and useful.

DVS lobbied with the state government and created a Pneumoconiosis Board for the timely detection of silicosis.

Created a task force at the district and state level for providing help to silicosis patients, developing online records of their treatment and providing social security to their families.

Records of more than 7600 workers were stored in the software and their applications were processed for different schemes.

Reach of work done by DVS

STRIKE BY WORKERS FOR THEIR RIGHTS

Under the supervision of DVS, Khaan Mazdoor Sfaety Union Karaukli and unions in Dhaulpurheld an indefinite strike for the following demands

The approved amount of 1 crore be distributed as soon as possible.

Families who have lost members due to silicosis be given 1 lakh more than the 3 lakh already distributed.

Inclusion of union members and DVS members into the Mining Foundation Trust.

Living silicosis patients are currently awarded 2 lakhs by the labour department. The mining department should also award 2 lakhs.

Silicosis sufferers must be included in the disabled category and given work under MGNREGA scheme according to their ability.

As per the guidelines of the Pneumoconiosis Board, the results of the test must be out in 2 days.

The families of silicosis sufferers must be included in the Pradhan Mantri Awaas Yojna .
